As a member you are welcome to just show up to any of our rides on the ride calendar and ride with us – please do. All we ask is that you show up on time at the designated meet time and place with a full tank of gas as our Road Captains often take the “scenic route”.

As for what to expect when you show up for a ride, we usually have a little friendly conversation while everyone is signing ride release forms (don’t be shy – we are a friendly bunch), the Road Captains will get together to discuss details for the upcoming ride, then as we do before every ride, we ask new members or guests to introduce themselves, and then proceed with a short safety talk. Attendance at the short safety talk is required for everyone attending the ride. After the safety talk, we mount up and ride.

Most of our rides are destination rides meaning the ride ends with kickstands down at the specified ride destination. Most riders usually ride back at their leisure and in small groups. If you are unfamiliar with Arizona and/or the destination, please speak-up, and one of the Road Captains or fellow riders will be more than happy to ride back with you to more familiar surroundings.
