Chapter Manager

Hogsters,

What an awesome year it has been! We have maintained our membership levels in the mid-200 range , we won last year's western region 365 mileage award, and we have rode our motorcycles all over the country. We have made some new relationships and created some awesome experiences. All of you deserve to take a bow. I want to personally thank you all for all of your support. You guys ROCK!

With all of that being said. Let's do it again, All the best to my past Officers and welcome to all of our incoming officers. 2025 is going to be even better than 2024. The ride planning for 25 has already begun and from what I can see it is going to be a incredible year of riding. That's all I have for now. Pull up your bootstraps and lets RIDE.

Thanks,

Ronald R Long

Chapter Manager Arrowhead Harley-Davidson

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Incoming Director's report

Wow! Time is flying and the end of the year is here.

As many of you know Our fearless leader, Kevin Mancino is transitioning back to his favored position as a road captain for our chapter. I want to thank Kevin for his leadership and commitment in his role as Director of HOG 5104.

What this means is that I am stepping into the Director position beginning in January. I hope to do right by my predecessor and all of our HOG family. I will be leaning heavily on the enthusiasm and experience of my fellow officers to deliver a fun and satisfying membership in the Chapter I call home.

With all of that said, I hope you will all join in the fun for upcoming rides and events. I want everyone to make the most of what our team has to offer. Here are a few things to look forward to:

New Years Day Brunch at the China Buffet in Surprise (quickly becoming an annual tradition)

New location for January's monthly Chapter meeting, Mimi's Café = 7450 West Bell Road, Glendale.

Moving into the new year, I want everyone's input for potential rides and new experiences for our chapter. I mean EVERONE!

I am trying to keep this short, but the possibilities really are endless for a great 2025. Join in the shenanigans and...Lets Ride!

Warm Regards,

John Sbrega

Incoming Director, HOG 5104

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

H.O.G. Family:

Happy New Year.

Don't forget to get your 365 milage started for the year just turn your form into Ron.

There are going to be a lot of fun rides coming up this year day rides and some overnigheters. I am looking forward to riding with all of you.

If you have any ride suggestions just let us know and we will get them added to the ride schedule.

Don't forget to sign up on Teamup for the rides, it helps the leader make arrangements. I am probably the worst at signing up, but I will be working on it.

Let's get out ride and have fun ride safe see you on the road.

Assistant Director,

Win Hillebert

Secretary's Notes

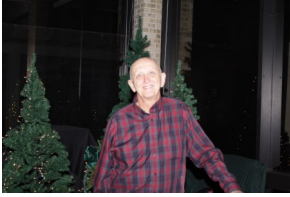

Happy 2025 friends!

Make a New Year resolution to ride more. Everyone can benefit from fresh air therapy. Being with other like-minded people makes the ride an event. The friendships you make are priceless. Even riding alone or with a passenger is good for the soul.

All our members are needed to make a wonderful club. We need volunteers a lot of the time. Think about doing one thing a year. Even that would help immensely. We usually get a free meal when we do. Many hands make a task easier for all.

I wish everyone a healthy, happy, and safe New Year!

Jan

Treasurer's Report

January – 2025

Now that the year of 2024 is over, it's a good time to look back on how the year went and to look forward to an even better year in 2025. Personally, as chapter Treasurer, I saw lots of changes for the year. There were big changes in officers during the year. Kerrie Navin moved over to our sister chapter. Kevin Mancino stepped in as Director and the club continues to function well and we continue to add new members. A big thank you to both Kerrie and Kevin for their efforts in 2024. John Sbrega will be leading us on new adventures in 2025.

From the Treasurer's perspective, 2024 went well. There were some challenges with new officers and banking regulations, along with trying to keep track of Arizona Football transactions. I have to give a shout out to both Ron Long and Sam Sovis for their efforts in securing the football tickets and selling all of the tickets the chapter purchased. The football games were a new and exciting idea.

2025 should be another great year for Arrowhead HOG Chapter 5104. I'm anxious to see if 2024 was another million-mile year. What's the best part of being a HOG member? Being able to ride our motorcycles and meet and enjoy all the very best chapter friends. Be sure to turn in those 365 ride forms if you haven't already and "LET'S RIDE"!!

Welcome to the New Year HOG family

PROTECTIVE CLOTHING AND EQUIPMENT

Studies show that the head, arms, and legs are most often injured in a crash.

Protective clothing and equipment serve a three - fold purpose for motorcyclist: comfort and protection from the elements, some measure of injury protection, and through use of color or reflective material, a means for other motorist to see motorcyclist.

Helmet:

This is the most important piece of equipment. Safety helmets save lives by reducing the extent of head injuries in the event of a crash. Many good helmets are available. Make sure it fits comfortable and snugly, and is fastened for the ride. In choosing a helmet look for the DOT label on the helmet. The DOT label on helmets constitutes the manufacturer's certification that the helmet conforms to the Federal standard. In many States, use of a helmet is required by law. Passengers should also wear helmets.

Eye Protection:

Since many motorcycles don't have windshields, riders must protect their eyes against insects, dirt, rocks, or other airborne matter. Even the wind can cause the eyes to tear and blur vision, and good vision is imperative when riding.

Choose good quality goggles, glasses with plastic or soft lenses, or a helmet with a face shield.

Goggles, glasses, and face shields should be scratch free, shatterproof, and well-ventilated to prevent fog buildup. Only clear shields should be used at night since tinted shields reduce contrast and make it difficult to see. Even if your motorcycle has a windshield, eye protection is recommended.

Jackets and Pants:

Clothing worn when riding a motorcycle should provide some measure of protection from abrasion in the event of a spill. These should be a durable material (special synthetic material or leather). Jackets should have long sleeves. Pants (not shorts) should not be baggy or flared at the bottom to prevent entanglement with the chain, kick starter, foot pegs, or other protrusions on the sides of a motorcycle.

Gloves:

Durable gloves are recommended. They should be of the non-slip type to permit a firm grip on the controls. Leather gloves are excellent. Gauntlet type gloves keep air out of the rider's sleeves.

Appropriate gloves are available for all types of weather.

Footwear:

Proper footwear affords protection for the feet, ankles, and lower part of the legs. Leather boots are the best. Sandals, sneakers, and similar footwear should not be worn since they provide little protection. Avoid dangling laces that can get in the way.

Stay safe and have fun Safety Officer

Rick Frey (Rickster)

Safety Officer

Does the thought of riding in the wet make your mouth go dry? Riding your motorcycle in the rain can be safe and—dare we say it—even fun, as long as you’re prepared with the right skill set and gear. What exactly should you expect when riding in the rain, and what adjustments should you make as you ride?

Tip 1: Choose the right gear

Good waterproof apparel, like a rainsuit (two-piece or one), gloves, boots, and perhaps an electric heated vest, can keep you warm and dry in even the most persistent storm, which is the first key to enjoying a day spent in the rain. High-vis Photo Courtesy of Suzuki Motor of America Tip 1: Choose the right gear MenuÉ isn’t the most stylish, but in conditions of reduced visibility it increases the chance that other drivers will see you, something to keep in mind as you shop for gear.

Waterproof gear tends to add warmth on its own, but if rain is in the forecast, consider bringing multiple thinner layers that you can add if you get chilly. Another oft-overlooked piece of the gear puzzle is the helmet, which should be equipped with an anti-fog visor (i.e., Pinlock), a breath guard, or even a visor with electric defrost function. And either leave the tinted shield at home or bring along a clear spare; the last thing you need is a darkened view of a wet road. Keep your visor down and closed at all times if possible. Once rain or moisture gets inside it will be very difficult to defog.

Whatever combination of gear you end up with, make sure that it doesn’t intrude on your riding or distract you in any way. For example, you can’t work the controls with frozen fingers, but an extra-warm pair of gloves may be too bulky and not much better. Similarly, a neck warmer may be nice and toasty but limit you from turning your head enough for a shoulder check. You may have to search to find the right gear, but you should be able to find a nice balance between comfort and practicality for the conditions you intend to ride in. Finally, if your wet-weather riding includes commuting, keep a change of clothes ready at work—just in case.

Tip 2: Ride smoother and smarter

There is one word to remember when riding in the rain: smooth. When it’s wet outside, everything you do on your motorcycle should be smooth, from throttle adjustments to braking to cornering. There’s a reason today’s motorcycles often include a Rain mode that cuts power and perhaps even smooths out the throttle mapping and/or increases ABS and traction control intervention.

Even with modern rider aids, roll on and off the throttle gently, and use your lean angle sparingly. Keeping your bike as upright as possible will reduce the chances of it sliding out from underneath you if you hit a slick spot.

Tip 3: Be wary of intersections

Intersections are dangerous enough when you’re on a motorcycle, and unfortunately the rain makes things worse. They’re a collection of hazards: slippery oil spots where cars stop and idle, painted lines that can become like ice when wet (see next tip), and of course plenty of drivers who might not be paying as much attention as you. Roundabouts are especially tricky, and can be slippery not just at the entrances and exits but also throughout the circle. Approach slowly to avoid having to brake.

Tip 4: Watch out for surprises

When it’s wet out, situations that are nearly harmless in the dry can turn into unpleasant surprises. Keep an eye out for manhole covers, sealer pavement (tar snakes), painted lines, and fallen leaves, all of which are like black ice when they’re wet. If and when you do encounter any of these traction inhibitors, check first if there is a line that you could easily take around them. If not, resist braking or accelerating hard and roll over them without making any aggressive inputs. Note that in case you do have to change your line or turn over a greasy section, it’s important to keep your hands relaxed on the handlebars and don’t lean the bike any more than necessary. Standing water is another potential hazard, and is especially dangerous on the freeway where speeds may prevent you from slowing in time to avoid hydroplaning. Water will of course pool at low points, which on freeways is often the left-most lane where the concrete barrier prevents it from draining. Avoid using that lane and watch cars ahead of you for signs of water spray so you can spot problem areas in advance. Be sure that you are careful on steel bridge decks and cattle guards as they can be very slick in the rain.

Tip 5: Find a dry line

Although this may seem obvious, it is amazing how many people we see riding in an area of the lane that is wet even though an adjacent area is dry. Dry pavement offers superior traction and maneuverability, so make sure you continually place yourself in the driest section of the lane (typically where the car tire tracks are).

Head Road Captain

Hello, my fellow HOG members,

Another wonderful year on the horizon. This year we have a lot of exciting things going on. We will be setting up rides around the AZ Maps charity. If you have not grabbed your 2025 maps, they are a $10 donation, you can pick them up at the dealership.

We just had our ride planning meeting on the 14th and we set up a bunch of rides that incorporate AZ map stops, more to come as the year goes on.

We have historically done rides to restaurants. This year we will be offering destinations rides, whether they are parks, Axe throwing, shooting or whatever Mandi and Crystal can dream up, we will all meet at a location at a set time and enjoy some good times with great friends. We will also set up a meeting spot to start but if you prefer, you can ride to the location on your own and have fun with friends.

As always, we are looking to entice more and more riders out on the road with us. We have planned rides out for the next few months. Every weekend we have something fun going on, as we have added a few new destinations to the schedule this quarter as well as brought back a few. We try to make sure that everyone has an opportunity to make it out on the road, from short rides to long rides, technical to easy and everything in between.

So, if you get a chance please come out and join us, if you have any questions, feel free to contact me and any of the officers. We all have a passion; let's get out and ride and above all be safe...

HOG ACTIVITIES:

Winter is finally here, with a break from the heat, don't forget to dress warm for the weather.

Layers and heated gear work great when the sun goes down and the temperatures drop.

The Christmas party is coming up, sign up, pick your meal and come have holiday fun.

As the year comes to an end, get those millage readings in and start a millage form for next year.

I hope to see you all for the end of the year fun and activities.

As always feel free to recommend rides, activities and event.

THANK YOU EVERYONE!

Past Director's Message

HOG'sters just a reminder we have great riding weather now, so let's get out and ride!!! Tis the season to put our legs over that Iron Horse and crank the throttle up.

Check Teamup for the ride schedule and come out to Arrowhead Harley and join us for some events. As for the rides, we are always looking for new destinations. If you find some place cool, tell us about it so we can add it in to the ride list. Again, if you like to ride, come on out and ride. If you are not sure, you can always come to a meeting and check us out first or get InTouch with one of the officers or road captains. Hope to see you soon on a ride or event.
